Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Insights & Analytics Analyst role at Coles Group. As a recent graduate in Business Information Systems with a specialisation in Data Analytics, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to Coles' commercial transformation team and make a meaningful impact on millions of Aussie lives.

My experience aligns closely with the requirements of this role. During my internship at Fintech.com, I designed automated reports and KPI dashboards using Power BI, which streamlined data visualisation for multiple departments. This experience has honed my skills in delivering high-quality commercial insights and analytics reporting, which is crucial for this position.

I am proficient in SQL and have hands-on experience with Microsoft Power BI, Excel, and Tableau. My internship at Sun Pharma allowed me to develop my skills in stakeholder management and workshop facilitation, where I led presentations on data-driven insights to both technical and non-technical audiences.

What particularly excites me about this role is the opportunity to work in a diverse, close-knit team that values new ideas and passionate work. My background in customer service at Quest Apartment Hotels has strengthened my ability to understand and meet diverse stakeholder needs, which I believe will be valuable in supporting the varied business units at Coles Group.

I am eager to bring my technical skills, analytical mindset, and passion for data-driven decision-making to Coles Group. I am particularly drawn to your commitment to professional development and creating an inclusive workplace culture.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to Coles Group's continued success and innovation in serving Aussie communities.

Yours sincerely,
Ark Dev Sharma.

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am thrilled to apply for the Insights & Analytics Analyst position at Coles Group. Your commitment to serving Aussie communities since 1914 and your focus on convenient, healthy solutions for customers resonate strongly with my professional goals and values.

As a Business Information Systems student specialising in Data Analytics, I have developed a strong foundation in SQL, Microsoft Power BI, and data management. My internship experiences have allowed me to apply these skills in real-world settings, aligning closely with the requirements of this role.

At Fintech.com, I analysed customer feedback surveys and designed automated reports, enhancing my ability to deliver commercial insights and analytics dashboards. This experience, combined with my work at Sun Pharma where I created Tableau dashboards for financial metrics across departments, has prepared me to support Coles Group's data strategy effectively.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to lead insight generation workshops with varied end-user groups. My experience in conducting market research and presenting findings to stakeholders has honed my ability to articulate data management concepts to audiences with varying levels of technical literacy.

While I may not have extensive experience with retail product data, I am a quick learner and am eager to apply my analytical skills to this new domain. My adaptability and strong communication skills, developed through my diverse experiences including customer service at Quest Apartment Hotels, will enable me to effectively collaborate with the centralised IT data hub and become a key contact for various business units.

I am drawn to Coles Group's commitment to diversity, inclusion, and professional development. As someone who values teamwork and continuous learning, I am excited about the prospect of contributing to and growing with your organisation.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and enthusiasm can contribute to Coles Group's commercial transformation journey.

Yours sincerely,
Ark Dev Sharma.

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Insights & Analytics Analyst role at Coles Group. As a final-year Business Information Systems student specialising in Data Analytics, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to a company that has been serving Aussie communities for over a century.

Your job description emphasises the need for strong skills in SQL and data visualisation tools, particularly Microsoft Power BI. Through my academic training and internships, I have developed proficiency in these areas. At Fintech.com, I used SQL to analyse customer feedback surveys and Power BI to create automated reports and KPI dashboards. This experience aligns perfectly with the role's requirement to deliver high-quality commercial insights and analytics reporting.

I am particularly drawn to the collaborative nature of this role, working closely with the Insights and Analytics Manager and supporting various stakeholders across Commercial Business units. My internship at Sun Pharma honed my ability to work effectively in a matrix environment, where I conducted market research, developed PowerPoint presentations, and communicated data-driven insights to diverse audiences.

While my experience with retail product data is limited, I am a quick learner and am excited about the prospect of applying my analytical skills to this new domain. My strong foundation in data management and my experience with cloud-based platforms through my university projects will enable me to quickly adapt to Coles Group's data infrastructure.

What sets me apart is my passion for leveraging data to drive strategic decision-making. As the President of my high school's Youth Parliament, I developed strong leadership and communication skills, which I believe will be valuable in facilitating insight generation workshops and becoming a key contact for various business units.

I am impressed by Coles Group's commitment to employee wellbeing, professional development, and building an inclusive culture. These values align perfectly with my own, and I am excited about the prospect of contributing to and growing with your organisation.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to Coles Group's continued success in serving Aussie communities.

Yours sincerely,
Ark Dev Sharma.
